Thank you to

Bureau!

For your continued support to the

FFA RULES:

1. All entries must:
 - (a) Be on regular FFA entry forms, completed in detail, including age of animal, and approved by the Agricultural Education Instructor. Members will not be permitted to exhibit an entry that has not been properly entered in keeping with the deadline date.
 - (b) Projects must have been owned or leased and managed for at least sixty days prior to the Fair as a part of the Supervised Agricultural Experience projects of members in good standing with their local FFA Chapter. Any leased project which is registered in the name of a person other than the member, or registered in the name of the member's farm family, may be exhibited if the project is documented in the member's SAE and the ID number on the project, and the ID number in the lease agreement match. The lease agreement for that project must be for a minimum of nine months and the project is exhibited solely by the FFA member during the period of the agreement. Documentation and/or proof of ownership/lease must be presented at registration or check-in, i.e. lease/project agreement with ID numbers and signatures OR registration papers (copies are accepted).
 - (c) Graduates who are active FFA members with local, state and national dues paid, may exhibit for three years after high school graduation. Incoming Freshmen who are active FFA members with local, state and national dues paid, as well as enrolled in an Agriculture Education Program with an approved SAE Program, may exhibit. Any FFA member that has received the Discovery Degree is also able to exhibit.
2. Although care will be exercised to avoid loss, the Fair Management and State FFA Association will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.
3. Exhibitors are allowed two entries per class per division (or division where no classes apply) in each livestock, poultry, rabbit, and wool class, one in landscape class and one in each crops class, with the exception of "Any Other Variety" in which up to five different varieties may be entered. Note: Not more than one of the same variety in "Any Other Variety" may be entered. Ten different cultivars per class in Nursery, two unlike entries in each agriculture mechanics class, and one properly fitted showmanship entry in each kind of livestock entered unless otherwise stated. Members must show their own animal, except in exceptional situations approved by the Sectional Superintendent. Members having two entries in a specific livestock class may have the second animal shown by another FFA member in official dress. Only members and helpers in Official Dress will be allowed to show.
4. If there is no competition or an entry is deemed unworthy of the premium offered, the premium may be awarded at the discretion of the judges.
5. FFA Chapters may compete the same as individuals. When this is done, the Chapter will be assigned an exhibitor number. Chapters entering livestock must indicate on the registration form the name of the member who will show the animal.
6. Animals entered in the FFA Division must be made available for use in the Livestock, Dairy Cattle or Showmanship contests, unless excused by the Superintendent.
7. Any FFA exhibitor violating Fair rules or guilty of undesirable conduct may be penalized by forfeiture of all premiums earned, at the discretion of the FFA Management.
8. No animals may be advertised for sale during the Yamhill County Fair until after the auction is over.
9. FFA members may not sleep in the barns. Members may not stay in trailers or campers unless accompanied by parent or an approved adult chaperone.
10. All livestock exhibitors must be accompanied by their Chapter Advisor or an officially designated replacement.
11. Breeding livestock may be registered or non-registered purebred; other breeds; or commercial. When making fair entries, the animals must be entered by breed, by other breed, or as Commercial. If entering in other breeds, specify which breed. Market and feeder classes may be crossbred. Animals entered as registered must be registered by their respective breed association and identified by ear tattoo, tag or other identification as required and accepted by the breed association. Registration papers and the animal's identification must correspond with information on the entry form. This includes the percentage Exotic beef breeds. To be eligible for special breed association awards, animals must be registered in the exhibitor's name, and registration papers must be given to the Sectional Superintendent for review when animals are checked in. Tattoos must be readable. Animals, including Exotic breed, entered in commercial classes must be the progeny of purebred sire and dam, which need not be registered. EXCEPTIONS TO THE ABOVE RULE: Pending papers on all beef calves under 6 months of age are accepted with a copy of that animal's application for registration as well as sire and dam registration numbers.
12. All animals are subject to inspection by the veterinarian in attendance upon admission to the exhibition grounds. No animals shall be admitted to or allowed to remain on the grounds that shows evidence of any infectious or contagious disease or any unsightly disease condition such as warts, ringworm, etc. The management reserves the right to require health inspection, diagnostic tests, treatment and/or other disease control measures or procedures which might become necessary in emergencies.

Animals not passing health inspection by the State Fair Veterinarian must be immediately removed from the fairgrounds or exhibition area.

13. Bedding such as straw must be provided by exhibitors. There will be donated shavings for all exhibitors.
14. All FFA members will remove and clean straw from their pens and stalls prior to moving out. Failure to do so will result in premiums being withheld from the exhibitor.
15. Junior yearlings that have freshened are not eligible to compete.
16. Each FFA livestock exhibitor is responsible for: (a) Having the entry in the ring or place designated when class is called or exhibit is judged. Entries not in the proper place at time of judging will not be allowed to compete. (b) For giving proper care to animals entered. If animal or exhibitor area is not properly cared for, the Herdsmanship Judge has authority to have premium money withheld and have exhibitor take animal from the show.
17. We support and encourage the humane treatment of all animals. Exhibitors are expected to treat their animals with respect and provide for their continuous well-being through proper feeding, handling, disease prevention, sanitation and attention to their safety.
18. To be eligible for livestock association special awards, exhibitor must meet the requirement as stated for the award.
19. When classes are split, only one livestock association special award will be made and judges must determine and indicate who is to receive the award.
20. Animals are not to be watered at water faucets in the livestock building. This is essential to keep area clean and open for Fair visitors.
21. Novice: never shown any species prior to the Yamhill County Fair, including 4-H, FFA, or Open classes. Beginning: shown 4-H or FFA for two years or less, or first year in species. Advanced: Shown more than two years.

23. All stalls, pens, and exhibition places must be cleaned before 8 am and refuse matter deposited as directed by superintendents. All feed must be completed by this time.
24. All clubs will be house together in a barn.

No short shorts or skirt, underwear must be covered and not shown due to baggy pants or short shorts. Shirts must be worn at all times, no bare mid drifts or bare back tops. No low cut or revealing shirts. (bras must not be seen.) Clothes must not contain illustrations or words that are lewd, vulgar, obscene, plainly offensive, represent gang affiliation or which promote illegal activity.

SHOWMANSHIP AND ETHICS RULES FOR EXHIBITING AT THE FAIR

1. All members exhibiting livestock at the Fair are required to have read and signed the FFA Showmanship and Ethics Form.
2. Code of Ethics a. Treating an animal internally or externally with any irritant, counterirritant or other substance used to artificially change the conformation or appearance of an animal for show is considered unethical, inhumane and is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of graphite, powders, hemp, artificial hair, coloring, common products such as fly spray, ointment or liniment used to the point that it is irritating, or similar type products. The use of dyes, spray paint or other artificial coloring, which result in altering an animal's true and natural appearance and/or color is prohibited. Adding false hair or hair-like material, fleece, or skin at any point, spot or area of the animal's body is illegal and will result in immediate disqualification. Any liquid or substance not considered part of an accepted and normal diet for livestock is deemed illegal and inhumane. For example: the use of alcohol or carbonated beverages as a drench or filler, etc. b. The use of tranquilizers, sedatives or depressants which alter the physical or physiological state of the animal is illegal. Exceptions to this rule would be licensed, certified veterinarian treatment of a recognized disease or injury, or recommendation for tranquilizing breeding animals in heat that might compromise the safety of others. The drugs must be approved by the Food and Drug Administration for use in meat producing animals. All exhibitors will advise show management of any drug and/or medication administered to an animal that might be detected at the time of showing or at meat inspection. The name of the drug, its purpose, the person who administered the drug, time and date of administration will be presented to show management prior to the showing of the animal. Failure to report this information to the show management will result in severe penalty and/or disqualification. Any use of drugs or substances not approved by the Food and Drug Administration is strictly prohibited. All animals entered into livestock competition will be subject to testing for foreign substances that exceed acceptable levels established by the DFA, FSIS, USDA or EPA. c. Surgery, injection or insertion of foreign material under the skin and/or into the flesh of an animal to change the natural contour, conformation or appearance of animal's body is illegal. This includes vegetable oil, silicon or any other substance used to alter the shape of an animal. Acceptable practices of physical preparations, which are allowed include: clipping of hair, trimming of hooves, dehorning or removal of ancillary teats. d. The use of inhumane fitting, showing and/or handling practices or devices shall not be tolerated. For example: breaking tails, striking of the animal to cause swelling or for bracing purposes, use of any electrical contrivance, muzzles, etc. is not acceptable. e. Direct criticism or interference with the judge, show management, other exhibitors, breed representatives or show officials before, during or after the competitive event is prohibited. f. Show management reserves the right to require animal health certificates. Health inspection and diagnostic tests may be made before or after animals are on the livestock show premises for exhibitor and animal safety, or to inaugurate disease control procedures which may become necessary in emergencies as determined by animal health officials. Any violation of the Code of Ethics or specific rules as designated by individual fairs and livestock shows will result in forfeiture of premiums and awards, disqualification may result in probationary status and/or loss of eligibility for future participation in organized livestock competitions. Possible civil penalties may be imposed by the proper authorities based on evidence provided by the livestock show of exhibitors in violation of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic act/or the animal mistreatment, neglect and abandonment laws that apply on the local, state, and national levels. Other cooperating shows will be notified of the action taken by show management, which may affect the eligibility of the individual, group or sponsoring organization for participation at other shows. The decision of the livestock show management will be final.

3. Protests concerning entries must be filed in writing, accompanied by a $50.00 deposit by an FFA Advisor with the FFA General Superintendent prior to the actual start of judging of the entry. Protests that are sustained will have the deposit returned. The FFA Fair management reserves the right to deal with ethical violations in the following manners, depending on the severity: 1. Withhold premium money and cancel award. 2. Remove exhibits and/or exhibitor and possibly ban from future shows. 3. Report evidence to local school administration and other youth livestock show managers. The finding of the Division Superintendent, General FFA Superintendent, and the official veterinarian shall be final and conclusive. The Yamhill County Fair will not be responsible for the consequences, direct or indirect, of any animal or exhibitor being disqualified or barred from showing.

TAMPERING WITH LIVESTOCK

Artificial coloring of any animal or any artificial means of removing or remedying physical defects of conformation in exhibition animals, such as lifting or filling under the skin, will be considered as fraud and deception. All animals giving evidence of such treatment will be barred from exhibition at the Yamhill County Fair.

If any animal is found by the official veterinarian to have been tampered with as previously described, it shall be disqualified from competition. All prize money that has been won at the 2003 Yamhill County Fair by the exhibitor on any animal or animals so disqualified will be forfeited. The finding of the official veterinarian as to whether or not any animal has been improperly tampered with shall be final and conclusive. The Yamhill County Fair will not be responsible for the consequences, direct or indirect, of any animal or exhibitor being so disqualified or debarred from showing.
