SECONDARY FARM DWELLING STANDARDS:

Income Requirements: In order for Yamhill County to approve a secondary farm dwelling, the applicant must demonstrate that the dwelling will be located on a commercial farm, and that the farm owner needs additional help with the farm work. For the purposes of a secondary dwelling for a relative of the farm operator, a commercial farm is defined as making at least $10,000 in gross farm income per year. The gross income requirements for a secondary dwelling that will be occupied by a non-relative are $80,000 per year if the farm tract is made up of predominantly high-value farmland, or $40,000 if the farm tract is not high-value farmland. Evidence of gross income must be provided for the last two years, or three of the last five years. The purchase cost of livestock must be deducted from the total gross income. Receipts from the sale of farm crops or income tax statements (Schedule F) may be used to justify that the farm meets the gross income requirements.

Location of dwelling: A secondary dwelling for a relative of the farm operator must be located on the same lot or parcel as the dwelling of the farm operator. A secondary dwelling for other non-related farm help must either be located on the same lot or parcel as the principal farm dwelling, or may be located as follows:

- 1) On the same tract as the principal farm dwelling, but on a different parcel, provided that all contiguous lots in the tract are consolidated into one parcel; or
- 2) On a different lot than the principal farm dwelling, provided that the secondary dwelling is a manufactured home and a deed restriction is recorded requiring that the manufactured home be removed if the lot is conveyed to another party.

There may be additional approval standards for dwellings in the zoning ordinance and/or the Oregon Administrative Rules. A county Planner will provide you with the full requirements.

The applicant must provide sufficient information to show compliance with all applicable approval criteria.

THE APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE:

1. Completed application form, signed by the applicant and property owner (if different). The owner's signature must be notarized.
2. Site plan drawn to scale showing the parcel boundaries, all existing buildings, the proposed dwelling location, existing or proposed access, and any significant natural features.
3. Written justification and other evidence, including proof of gross farm income, showing compliance with the approval criteria.
4. Filing fee.

NOTE: Fees are not refundable.
