

INMATE VISITATION

The Yamhill County Correctional Facility allows for visitation between an inmate and his or her family, friends, or associates. A brochure with all the details regarding how to register to visit an inmate can also be found on this website. Visitation is a privilege and conditions are restricted to ensure the safety and security of all jail-related personnel including the inmates themselves.

In order to visit an inmate at the Yamhill County Correctional Facility, you must register here and the inmate will need to fill out visitation form with your name on there. An inmate is allowed to have up to five approved visitors on their visitation list. Inmates are not required to visit anyone. It is the inmate’s choice to accept or deny visiting anyone.

Inmates are allowed one 30 minute visit per week.

Special Visiting

The shift supervisor shall review all requests for special visits. Requests for special visits will be submitted in writing from the inmate. The shift supervisor will provide the inmate or person requesting a special visit with a written notice when he/she denies a special visit. This written notice will include the reason(s) for denying the visit.

Inmates are allowed two clergy visits per month that do not replace their weekly social visits. These visits should be scheduled as to not interfere with other visiting. If an inmate would like to see a clergy member more than this and not have it count against their social visits the inmate will need to request this in writing to a supervisor.
